Force to Strike Smashing Blow at Russians

Berlin, Feb. 10, via London, Feb. 11, cross the Vistula and discuss the case.

12.45 a. m.—Important developments in the east are generally expected here at an early date. Rumors have been repeatedly circulated from time to time in the last few weeks that the hour of a big victory was at hand without, however, materializing into fact. The considerable length of time Warsaw will resist after that, although it is not clear that the German commanders will place weight on the immediate possession of the city and fortress. In the event of success, the Austrian military authorities here is quite confident that Przemysl will soon be relieved for good.

JAPAN LOOKS TO U. S. TO END GREAT WAR

Declares Baron Chinda at Dinner to Admiral Dewa on Presidential Yacht Mayflower

Washington, Feb. 19.—Baron Dinko Jansa with an address in Vienna, Austria, Japanese ambassador to the United States, declared to-night at a dinner given by Secretary Daniels in honor of Admiral Dewa, Japanese representative, that Japan had no intention of entering the United States as a new war domain of making Japan a neighbor and friend. Admiral Dewa, speaking through his aide, recalled in similar expressions.

RIGHT IF NECESSARY

that Japan was speaking to America with strong confidence for the solution of "all troubles." His remarks were interpreted by the other diners as applying to the European war.

The dinner was given aboard the presidential yacht Mayflower and Harrison Chamberlain spoke in reply to speeches by Secretaries Daniels and Bryan in which they expressed friendship for Japan and confidence in her hope for a continuance of friendly relations with the United States.

Secretaries Bryan said he hoped to see all citizens and every officer of the navy would be willing to make the sacrifice of blood and property for peace. Yet he thought it proper that every person employ means for peace. Experience makes us wise," he said. "At times when all questions will be admitted to reason and not to force settlement." He said Americans for in Japan's spirit of peace never been shaken and that her desire honestly to live with the United States as a friendly neighbor.

for the expression of the sentiments and for indulged fully their hopes for the continuance of good will and friendly relations. That their pledges of friendship should have been made aboard a man-of-war, he said, added significance. That a warship should be made a peace maker, he added, made him feel doubly so.
